

Southwest Antiquarian Booksellers' Association

Mission of the Association

The Southwest Antiquarian Booksellers' Association or SABA is established to promote the used and antiquarian book trade as a professional association.

Goals of the Association

1. To organize the annual Albuquerque Antiquarian Book Fair and to advertise and promote exhibitors and sponsors of the fair.
2. To educate about and encourage an appreciation of antiquarian books , manuscripts and other printed materials.
3. To promote ethical and professional standards in the book trade.
4. To encourage the advancement of technical knowledge regarding bibliography, printing and the book arts.
5. To advocate for and promote the success of the booksellers in our association.

Application for Membership

Our annual meeting will be held at 9am on Saturday morning March 16,2019
If you have previously exhibited at the Albuquerque Book Fair or Rocky Mountain Book Fair, you are assumed to be a bookseller in good standing and your application will be approved.

Any applications received after our first meeting will need the sponsorship of another member and will be voted on by private member ballot. Annual dues are $50 and members may take a $25 discount on table rental at the book fair. Please apply early so that we may advertise your firm in the Book Fair program.
